Connected Minds

How much do the adults in your community know about keeping children safe online?

Supporting children and young people to make positive choices as well as educating them to look after themselves and others is key to enabling them to use the internet positively and safely. Your school community plays a huge role in both protecting and empowering young people so it's vital that all adults keep their awareness, understanding and skills up to date.

My sessions for parents/carers and staff provide up to date information and practical advice on how to support young people to get the most out of the internet.
My approach is to empower rather than scaremonger and to highlight that, while blocking/filtering/monitoring of the internet is useful, education is essential!
